Future disinfection. Now.

Future Disinfection Now Regional Roadshow proudly brought to you by the Interclean Group & Whitehouse Cleaning Supplies

FDN is designed for professionals managing the cleaning or infection control within healthcare or aged care facilities. If you are committed to, and passionate about bringing a higher level of clean and hygiene to your facility, then this FDN event is a morning you don't want to miss.

We are bringing the highlights of our national event into an environment where you can meet other professionals working to achieve the same outcomes as you.

What will you learn?

- Practical ways to reduce cross contamination
- How leading managers are validating their cleaning
- The latest disposable cleaning systems
- The steps involved in moving towards Best practice

Why should you attend?

- Hear highlights from National FDN conference
- Catch up with other managers facing similar challenges
- To get a full understanding of the right training program for you

Key Session Highlights
